CITY NEWS.

NO PAPER TO-MORROW MORNING.

Our printers—our and all—will keep the Fourth of July; hence we will issue no paper to-morrow morning. The Evening News will appear on Tuesday afternoon, as usual.

FLOWER QUEEN.—The last performance of the beautiful "Flower Queen," with its lovely music and exquisite tableau, will take place Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The young folks are all "ag'-g" with anticipation. We expect the hall will hardly contain all the ladies and children who desire to go. The price of admission is so little that mothers will be sure to go, and take the "whole family." It will be the last opportunity of hearing such sweet music, warbled by beautiful voices, surrounded by such charming accessories. The listener smiles; fancies himself in "airy land." Buy tickets in advance, and save trouble at the door.

PASIONERS FORWARDED.—We learn that four rebel prisoners will be forwarded from this city to-day for Lexington, where they will be tried by a military commission. Their names are Charles Lewis, charged with murder; James H. Jones, private, company I, Eighth Kentucky rebel cavalry, arrested in Bath County, Kentucky, October 19, 1863, charged with bushwhacking; W. F. Jones, private, company E, Third Kentucky rebel cavalry, captured with Morgan's command, November 25, 1863, charged with bushwhacking; and Joseph Jewett, captain, company G, Fourth Kentucky rebel cavalry. He was arrested in Owen County, November 25, 1863. The citizens charge him with arson, robbery, bushwhacking, violating his oath of allegiance to the Federal Government, and concealing himself in the country, acting in the capacity of a spy.

THE CASE OF ROBERT SMITH, CONVICTED OF MURDER.—The facts of the killing of Fred Landau, banker at the United States Hotel, is no doubt fresh in the minds of our readers. At the last term of the Jefferson Circuit Court he was tried and convicted of the charge of murder, and sentenced to be hung on the 22d of the present month. An appeal was taken against the decision of the court, and a bill of exceptions drawn up. This was presented to one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals, who granted the appeal, and the probability that Smith will have a new trial.

IN THE CASE OF JOHN WELCH.—He was sentenced at the same time to be hung the same day, some of the papers were missing, and no appeal was granted, and he will no doubt suffer the penalty of hanging on the gallows, the 22d of the present month.

PARTY AT BEDFORD SPRINGS.—We understand that the gentlemanly proprietors of the Bedford Springs will give a grand coalition party at the springs this evening. It will undoubtedly be one of the grandest affairs that has taken place in this State for a long time, and a large number of our citizens will no doubt be present. The springs are not far distant, and persons can leave here on the train this morning, reach the springs in time to attend the party, and can return to-morrow. We know of no more pleasant way to spend the Fourth than by paying a visit to the springs of a new.

CAPTAIN MORRIS.—It will be remembered that Captain Morris was a short time since tried by court martial here for the murder of Dr. Johnson, near Lexington, last J. J. and that the court was dissolved, not being able to agree as to the case. Capt. Morris, after the trial, was remanded to the military prison, and we understand will be sent to Lexington, Kentucky, to be tried by the court martial there. There are some interesting facts connected with this case, but as it is to be investigated by the proper authorities, we refrain from making any comment for the present.

THREE REBEL CHIEFS.—Capt. Andrew R. Gordon, of the 11th Alabama cavalry, Lieut. James Crook, of the 10th Alabama infantry, and Lieut. Thomas H. Jones, of the 7th Ala. cavalry, the first two captured at Hollaway's Landing, Alabama, and the last named captured near Louisville, Kentucky, with a score of men, were received here as prisoners of war. They will be sent North to await the slow process of exchange.

LIEUT. COL. J. ROWAN BOONE.—He is command of the 28th Kentucky, who was recently wounded in Georgia, is not so dangerously hurt as heretofore reported. He is a most gallant young officer, and since his father, Colonel Wm. P. Boone, has been in command of a brigade, the 28th Kentucky, and the command of the 28th Kentucky.

We are gratified to learn that his life is spared, and we trust he may soon recover.

THE ST. VINCENT'S SOCIETY.—The St. Vincent's Society will give a picotee at Knapp's Garden to day. Every arrangement has been made, and the affair promises to be a very pleasant one. Busses will leave different portions of the city for the grounds every hour. Those interested should d read the advertisement.

PHYSICIANS' FEES.—We direct the attention of citizens to the proceedings of a meeting of physicians for the purpose of establishing a new scale of prices, which they present through our columns this morning.

THE DEATH OF COL. HOLLIS.—A notorious guerrilla leader, is confirmed. He, with two of his men, was killed and buried at Slangeterville.

THE TRAIN FROM NASHVILLE.—The train from Nashville arrived on time last evening. All was quiet along the line, no guerrillas being seen or heard from.

Important in the Kanawha Valley.

The steamer T. J. Vicker arrived at Cincinnati on Friday night. Her passengers report that Hunter, Crook and Averill, with their commands, are in the Kanawha Valley. On Monday night General Hunter, with his command, stayed at the Falls of the Kanawha, 30 miles above Charleston, and Averill was seven miles in advance of Hunter. When at Lewisburg Crook dispatched his aid, escorted by one hundred and fifty cavalry guards, to Charleston, to countermand the order requiring the Government stores to be taken from the Kanawha Valley, and ordered them to load their wagons and meet him with short supplies.

The soldiers of Hunter report that a fight took place at Lynesburg, with equal numbers on both sides, but the night the rebels were re-enforced by Ewell's command, which was Stonewall Jackson's old brigade. On discovering this our men retreated in the morning, but were surrounded and cut to pieces on the retreat, with great slaughter. They succeeded, however, in making the road to Greenbrier, but lost their supplies and ammunition on the way. The command was generally routed and cut to pieces.

It is reported that General M'Gawlin and General Morgan, with 9,000 men, had effected a junction, and were making towards the salt-works on the Kanawha.

DEATH OF ANOTHER WORTHY CITIZEN.—It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we are called upon to announce the unexpected death of another of our most worthy and estimable citizens, Mr. N. D. Smith, which, after a short and painful illness, occurred on the morning of the 31st last, at his residence on Washington street, above Hancock, of congestion of the bowels.
